

Alano Clubs: Non-profit foundations that provide meeting space for 12 step recovery groups to hold regular meetings. They also provide social and recreational activities for those in recovery and their families in a safe, clean and sober environment.

Boulder Alano Club

Facts About The Boulder Alano Club:

- 501(c)(3) non-profit, with a board elected yearly by members
- Fosters opportunities for fellowship, community, social events
- Fully accessible and restrooms are ADA compliant
- Includes 3 meeting rooms (occupancy: 150, 50, & 30)
- Has dedicated child care space
- Offers dedicated space for sponsor/sponsee meetings
- Has a coffee bar, lounge, office
- Working towards a mid-July opening
- Offers meeting space to all 12-Step based recovery groups
- Meeting spaces are available for rent - see contact info below

Boulder Alano Club

Address: 4800 Baseline Road,
#B-102, Boulder -at Foothills and Baseline, in the Meadows on the Parkway shopping center next to Big Daddy's Bagels

Information and/or to donate visit:

boulderalanoclub.org

Direct questions and inquiries via e-mail:
info@boulderalanoclub.org Donations are tax-deductible

