

(Before the meeting: select a chairperson who comes prepared to read for 3-5 minutes, then shares based on the reading for 5 minutes or less. Have the chairperson read this format and conduct the meeting. At the end, the chairperson should select a prayer to closer with from AA conference approved literature.)

Welcome to the (Group Name here) meeting of Alcoholics Anonymous. We meet on (fill in your information with your virtual meeting schedule).

My name is _____, and I am an alcoholic.

Please mute yourself if you haven't already done so.

Please join me in a moment of silence, followed by the Serenity Prayer: "God, grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change, courage to change the things I can, and wisdom to know the difference."

Alcoholics Anonymous is a fellowship of men and women who share their experience, strength and hope with each other, that they may solve their common problem and help others to recover from alcoholism. The only requirement for membership is a desire to stop drinking. There are no dues or fees for AA membership; we are self-supporting through our own contributions. AA is not allied with any sect, denomination, politics, organization or institution; does not wish to engage in any controversy; neither endorses nor opposes any causes. Our primary purpose is to stay sober and help other alcoholics to achieve sobriety. (If you want to offer an online donation option, do so here).

Is there anyone here today that is in their first 30 days? (If yes) Please introduce yourself to the group.

I've asked _____ to read a selection of their choice from the Big Book, along with the steps

Our format is (put in your format here).

If you would like to share, please open up the chat box and write in a message such as "Share." You will be called on in the order that you post a message in the Chat box. We'd like to get to know each other better, so when you share, please state your first name, location and sobriety date.

Please refrain from crosstalk, and please keep what you hear here confidential to make it a safe place for all.

At 5 minutes before the end of the meeting, we will ask for a volunteer to chair the next meeting.

(Say this 5 minutes before the end of meeting) Are there any burning desires?

(At the top of the hour ask): Would all who care to please unmute yourself and join me yourselves in the _____ Prayer?
